Phyllis Overton Robinson was born July 18, 1934 in Trenton, MO to Guy and Evelyn (Bosley) Overton. She graduated from Trenton High School with the class of 1951. After graduation, Phyllis worked at Logsden Motor Company and Trenton Hardware. Phyllis began her banking career at Trenton Trust in 1964 where she began as a Teller and retired in 2004 at what is now Citizen's Bank and Trust as a Senior Financial Services Representative. After retiring, Phyllis spent many years traveling with her grandchildren watching their competitive and high school sports teams. She held her Blaze Baseball boys and Stealth Softball girls very dear to her heart. She also enjoyed traveling with friends and family and coming home to Trenton to spend time with her girlfriends.

Phyllis will be forever remembered by her daughter Kimberly Robinson Kaufman and husband Jeff of Columbia, granddaughter Ellie Kaufman, grandson Cooper Kaufman, a sister Kay Staton and husband Bob of Chillicothe, MO, brother-in-law Bob Brinkman of Houston, TX, and sister-in-law Dixie Overton Trenton, many special nieces and nephews and her beloved Iowa family.

Those preceding her in death include her parents, a sister Peggy Brinkman, and brother Jim Overton.
