

Obituary

Born: Sunday, January 15, 1939

Died: Friday, June 1, 2018

John B. Kuttler, 79, Trenton, passed away on June 1, of injuries sustained in a motor vehicle accident.

John was born on January 15, 1939, in Trenton, New Jersey, to Josef and Maude (Wiedner) Kuttler, and grew up in Bordentown, New Jersey.

Early in his life, John dreamed of being a farmer, and in his youth, he headed west from New Jersey, settling in Trenton in 1965, where he saw his dream come true.

Since that time, John has enjoyed great success and happiness as a farmer, a husband, a father and grandfather.

John was blessed with extraordinary intelligence and common sense, and a work ethic second to none.

John leaves his wife of 36 years, Delores (Tuttle) Kuttler, of the home; children: Kimberly Garten (Kendall), Blue Spring, MO; Valerie Fisher (Eric), St. Joseph, MO; Angelia Hays, St. Louis, MO; Kathleen Kuttler, Kansas City, MO; and Eric Kuttler (Sarah), Marshall, MO; grandchildren, Alexia Fuller Polk, Averie Fuller, and Landon Fuller; Kohl Garten and Katie Garten; Griffin Fisher and Skye Fisher; and Danielle Kuttler and Jessika Kuttler Smith; and great granddaughter Avalynn Polk.

There will be a visitation for family and friends commencing at 5:30 pm on Wednesday, June 6, at Resthaven Mortuary in Trenton, followed by a celebration of John's life at 6:30 pm. The family would recommend memorial contributions in honor of John to North Central Missouri College, an institution John loved, care of the funeral home.
