

Obituary

Born: Monday, April 7, 1919

Died: Tuesday, October 3, 2017

Thomas Francis Keane, a resident of Pasadena for 70 years, passed away on October 3, 2017. He was 98 years old.

He was born on April 7, 1919, in Baltimore, to the late Annie (O'Neill) and Thomas Keane. After graduating from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, class of 1937, he went to work at Martin's Airport building the B26 Aircraft. During WWII, he entered the US Army, serving as a sergeant with the 77th Infantry until May of 1946. He continued his education at the University of Baltimore, earning his Bachelors Degree in Transportation, then worked for the Maryland Department of Transportation as a planning engineer for about 30 years. During his free time he enjoyed studying genealogy and the history of the US and Ireland; and competing in sailboat races.
