

Obituary

Born: Monday, December 16, 1968

Died: Tuesday, December 2, 2014

Kevin William Dailey, age 45, a lifetime resident of Pasadena, passed at his home on December 2, 2014 after a six year illness.

He was born on December 16, 1968, in Baltimore, and graduated from Northeast High School. A member of the railroad union, he worked for the last eight years as a railroad flagman for Amtrak. He was also a member of Community United Methodist Church, and NA. He was a hard worker who enjoyed his tatoos, music (especially the band "Fire Within") and of course, spending time with his family.

Kevin is preceded in death by his daughter Stacylynn Marie Fruengel; and his great grandparents Lance and Genevieve Wolfe.
