

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, May 14, 1935

Died: Saturday, April 4, 2015

Martha Charlotte Puce, age 79, a resident of Pasadena for 36 years, and formerly of Baltimore, passed away peacefully on April 4, 2015 at Sinai Hospital after a long illness.

She was born on May 14, 1935, in Baltimore, to the late Sophia D. and John J. Marciniak, Sr. Proud of her Polish heritage, she was a devout Catholic who loved her family, especially her grandchildren, whom she adored. She enjoyed being a homemaker and mother, and was a wonderful cook; and also enjoyed bingo, romance novels, crossword puzzles/word search, watching TV, and talking on the phone. Her happiest times were when she was with her family and grandchildren during the holidays and special occasions, whether it was making home cooked meals for them at her Pasadena home, dining out, or being with them at her Ocean City home.
