

Obituary

Born: Monday, December 12, 1921

Died: Sunday, January 11, 2015

Edward Joseph Holub, age 93, a resident of Pasadena for 57 years, and formerly of Curtis Bay, died on January 11, 2015 at his home.

He was born on December 12, 1921, in Curtis Bay, to the late Agnes and Edward Holub. A graduate of Poly Tech, class of 1935, he went on to attain his bachelors degree in mechanical engineering from Johns Hopkins in 1956. He worked for the Glen L. Martin company, and later, for Westinghouse until his retirement. From June of 1944 until March of 1946 he served in the US Navy as a troubleshooter for Navy aircraft. A member of the American Legion, he was also very active in the Boy Scouts, Troop 478, for more than 30 years. He enjoyed working on antique cars, especially Mustangs, did some woodworking, and loved gardening, and of course, spending time with his family.
