

Obituary

Born: Thursday, May 16, 1963

Died: Thursday, May 14, 2015

Karen Marie Jones-Peeling, 52, a lifelong resident of Pasadena, died on May 14 peacefully at her home.

She was born on May 16, 1963 in Baltimore to Doris G. Jones and the late Richard J. Jones. Karen's first love was her family. She enjoyed reading books (especially the Bible) and traveling to new and interesting places. She loved to meet and talk to people. Karen was a woman of strong faith and very patriotic. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her.

In addition to her father, she is preceded in death by her daughter, Anna Marie Bergman.

Mrs. Peeling is survived by her loving husband of 25 years, Don Peeling, Jr.; sons Jay Bergman, Josh Peeling and Dillon Peeling; daughter Katie Peeling; and grandchildren, Kaitlyn and Ryan.

Prayer services will be at 6:00 pm, Friday, May 22 at Seventh Day Adventist in Glen Burnie, with a reception immediately following. Feel free to leave condolences here as well.

Service Summary

Memorial Service

6:00 PM Fri May 22, 2015

Seventh Day Adventist Church

Glen Burnie, MD