

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, August 13, 1980

Died: Saturday, February 8, 2014

UPDATE - SNOW CONTINGENCY PLAN

For everyone's safety the visitation and service times for Amanda have been postponed for 24 hours. The gathering and service will take place between 6 and 8 PM on Friday.

Amanda Alafair Armbruster (nee Gawne), age 33, a resident of Pasadena for 15 years, and formerly of Denton, TX (1980-1990), Norman, OK (1990-1991), Parkville, MD (1991-1994), Pasadena, MD (1994-2001), Ft. Jackson, SC (2001), Pasadena, MD (2002-2008), Lakewood, CO (2008-2009), and Pasadena since 2010, died on February 8, 2014 at her home.

Service Summary

Memorial Service

7:00 PM Thu Feb 13, 2014

G. J. Gonce Funeral Home, P.A.

169 Riviera Drive
Pasadena, MD 21122

She was born on August 13, 1980, in Camp Pendleton, CA, to William and the late Paula Anne Gawne. After graduating from Chesapeake High School, she served in the US Army in 2001, and went on to continue her studies at TESST College of Technology in College Park, graduating in 2008. She held various secretarial jobs, and worked at the Maryland Renaissance Festival every year since 1996, except for the years she lived out of state. She was a devoted Wiccan, loving mother, wife, and daughter, and loved spending time with her family.

She is survived by her father William C. Gawne, of Pasadena; her sister Marianne Grace Brown, of Jessup; two daughters: Rhiannon Armbruster, of Santa Monica, CA, and Bethany Burcke, of Pasadena; her former husband Gregory Armbruster, of Santa Monica, CA; and many cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

A Memorial Service will be celebrated for her on Thursday (subject to change - see above) at 7 PM at the Gregory J. Gonce Funeral Home, PA, 169 Riviera Drive, Pasadena. A gathering of family and friends will take place one hour prior, from 6 until 7 PM. Feel free to express your condolences here as well.