

Obituary

Born: Thursday, December 15, 1960

Died: Wednesday, December 18, 2013

Dina Marie Bunn, age 53, a resident of Pasadena for most of her life, died on December 18, 2013 at Knollwood Manor after suffering from cancer for 11 months.

She was born on December 15, 1960, in Baltimore, and after graduating from high school, she worked as a warehouse manager for Gutter Helmet, and held numerous secretarial positions. She was a member of the Orchard Beach VFD Ladies Auxiliary, and enjoyed bingo, playing slots, and of course spending time with her family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her brother in law John Ingram.

Dina is survived by her two sons: Brenden Wilson, of Pasadena, and Shaun Kraft, of Glen Burnie; two sisters: Donna Ingram, of Pasadena, and Andrea Bunn, of Illinois; her mother and stepfather Carolyn and George Dumbauld, of Annapolis; her father Thomas Bunn, of Delaware; her companion of 20 years John Heyman, of Pasadena; step sister Peggy Radway, of Annapolis; step brother Barry Dumbauld, of New York; and numerous nieces, nephews; one great niece, and two great nephews.

Services and interment are private, but feel free to express your condolences here.
