

Obituary

Born: Saturday, July 12, 1924

Died: Sunday, November 2, 2014

Wilmer Vincent Coulter, "Mike" age 90, a resident of Pasadena for 37 years, and formerly of Pennsylvania, died on November 2, 2014 at Ellicott City Nursing and Rehab after a 10 month illness.

He was born on July 12, 1924, in Baltimore, to the late Blanche Elizabeth and Wilmer Vincent Coulter, Sr. He attended both Poly Technic and City College, and went on to attend Washington College after his discharge from the US Navy, where he served during WWII from 1943 until 1946. He worked for over 40 years as a general manager in the industrial gasses industry. He was a long time member and past Commodore of the Patapsco River Power Squadron; the Ventnor Yacht Club; and the Chesapeake Commodore's Club, and enjoyed recreational boating, steamed crabs, the Baltimore Orioles, and family get-togethers.
