

Obituary

Born: Monday, December 20, 2010

Died: Tuesday, March 18, 2014

Olivia Wendolyn Lewis, age 6, and Emma Sophia Lewis, age 3, residents of Lander, Wyoming for 4 years, died tragically on March 18, 2014 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident near their home in Lander.

Born on October 14, 2007, in Maryland, Olivia was one of the sweetest, kindest people. She loved people, and made so many friends in her short life. She was very, very active, and loved dancing and drawing. She loved school and was just beginning to read and write; she loved reading with her mommy and daddy at night. Olivia will be greatly missed by all who knew her; she would have been a magnificent young lady.

Born on December 20, 2010, in Wyoming, Emma was a character: she had an intense sense of her individuality, and we loved her for that. She loved letters (she knew her whole alphabet by 2) and was trying to read even at three. She was a strong little girl who loved superheroes. She loved laughing and could continually get in and out of trouble as she saw fit. Emma will be greatly missed; we could not wait to see what a beautiful person she would be.

The two angels are survived by their dear sister Vivian; their loving parents Rebecca and Sean Lewis; their proud grandparents Claire and David Horvath, and Maureen and Gordon Lewis; and eight aunts and uncles: Eric, Noel, Faith, Paul, Nathan, Christopher, and Andrew Lewis, and Jennifer Wittich.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held in St. Jane Frances Church on Tuesday at 10 AM, with Monsignor Carl Cummings Officiating. Their burial will follow in Holy Cross Cemetery. Family requests friends visit on Monday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 PM at the Gregory J. Gonce Funeral Home, 169 Riviera Drive, Pasadena, 21122, and you may leave condolences here as well.
