

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, January 13, 1948

Died: Wednesday, May 2, 2018

Paula Montgomery Palmer Allen, age 70, a resident of Brooklyn Park for 20 years, passed on May 2, 2018.

She was born on January 13, 1948, in Baltimore, to the late Rose Marie and Paul Vernon Montgomery. She was a devoted homemaker, wife, mom, and grandmom, and was an avid supporter of our active military and veterans; she attended many veteran related events and supported VFW Post 2678.

Her grandchildren, Doug and TJ, called her “ninja nana” and loved her dearly. She enjoyed attending her granddaughter Amber’s, fashion runway shows. At night, her and her daughter Toni, enjoyed walking their dog Mugsey, and listening to and singing the songs from the Jersey Boys soundtrack. She loved dancing to every genre of music, passing her dancing skills down to her daughters Leah, Joanne and Toni. Late at night, she loved Facebook, gaming and private messaging everyone – her favorite thing to say was “go to bed” and “I love you to the moon and back.” Our mom became everyone’s nana. She gave many kids from the neighborhood a warm place to sleep, a hot meal and took them fishing. Even today, those neighborhood kids, now grown, bring their own kids to see nana. Paula, Leah and George loved to go to the VFW to see friends and sing karaoke; some of mom’s favorite songs to sing were Stand By Your Man, Fever, Treat Me Right, and Personality. “I believe everyone would agree that our mom Paula, had a wonderful personality and was a true firecracker.”

Along with her parents, Paula is preceded in death by her brother Ronnie Montgomery, her sister Rose Marie Montgomery, and her six aunts – the Lukenich Family.

She is survived by her three loving daughters and their families: Leah Mansfield (and her husband Rob) along with their children Amber and TJ Affeldt, all of Crofton; Toni Palmer (and Michael Babinec) along with son Douglas Palmer, (and Kirsten Groncki) of Baltimore; Joanne Mayer-Perri (and Kevin Clark) along with children Catherine Chrusch (and husband David), Dakota Christie, and A.J. Mayer-Perri, all of Scranton, Pennsylvania; Paula’s dear son James A. Storey, of England; her devoted life companion George Ferandes, of Baltimore; and seven great grandchildren.
