

Obituary

Born: Thursday, December 14, 1922

Died: Friday, March 8, 2013

Dorothy Lousie Simko, 90, of Harding, went peacefully to be with the Lord on March 8, 2013 surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Pittsburgh, she was the daughter of the late Victor and Bertha Moxley Gawlik.

Dorothy lives a full and blessed life with her late husband Stephen P. Simko. Together they celebrated 66 years of marriage while raising 8 children.

Dorothy was a graduate of West Wyoming High School where she loved and excelled in basketball and softball. She always insisted on hunting and having a garden for fresh food and canning .

Her love of the Lord and family led her on many paths to inspire others where she taught and cooked at the Full Gospel Academy, Pittston and also started the organization "Mission Impossible" to help others who were less fortunate.

She was a life long Christian who touched the lives of everyone she met with her strong faith and belief in the Lord. To this day she is known as "Mom" to the countless number of friends and strangers she extended her helping hand to.

Preceding her in death in addition to husband Stephen P. Simko on March 3, 2010 were a son, Daniel and a sister Helen Conrad.

Surviving are her children: Geraldine and her husband Wallace Talley, Newark, Del., Stephen V., Harding, James and his wife Michele, Pittston, George and his wife Diane, Pittston, Thomas and Joseph Simko, Harding and Theresa Bishop, Harding.

Twelve grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Also a brother Victor Kupcek, Rockport, Indiana and sisters Marion Belvins, New Market, Md., and Barbara Palmer, Middletown, Pa. Also numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday March 13, 2013 at 11:00am from the Gubbiotti Funeral Home, 1030 Wyoming Ave., Exeter.

The Rev. Jerry L. Lewis, pastor of the Apostolic Lighthouse Church, will officiate.
