

Obituary

Born: Thursday, August 19, 1943

Died: Saturday, August 10, 2013

Albert J. Ercolani, Jr., 69, of Kingston, passed away on Saturday August 10, 2013 at his home.

Born August 19, 1943, in Washington, D.C., he was the son of the late Albert E. and Eva Terpack Ercolani.

He was a graduate of Kingston High School and the Wilkes-Barre Business College.

Mr. Ercolani was an entrepreneur who was self employed working in landscaping, and home renovations. He also had worked at the G. R. Leonard Co., Inc., Kingston and Chicago, based.

He belonged to the Luzerne County Deputy Sheriffs Office .

Albert, also known as "Al" to many, was a strong man with a gentle heart. He carried with him an enormous amount of compassion and helped anyone in need , which he shared with everyone. He was a caretaker for many. His generous nature is what many remember most about him. Albert's purpose in life became his devotion to his godchild KaeLynn, Pittston,Pa. KaeLynn brought him overwhelming joy. She and "Al" spent priceless hours enjoying life together as he taught and showed her how to enjoy each day. Albert made an impact on many lives. Whether your troubles were big or small and no matter where you came from, he was your rock. Albert's spirit and energy cannot be completely captured in words. He lived life from the heart, going above and beyond with everyone he encountered. His departure in this world leaves an emptiness in all those who knew him; To know him was to love him.

Che Dio continui a benedirvi in cielo. (May God continue to bless you in heaven)

Surviving are his sisters: Rose Marlene Dick, West Wyoming, Corrine and her husband Robert Taylor, Morrisville, Pa. and a brother Ronald Ercolani, Indian Lake, Pa. Also a step-brother Daniel Ercolani, Big Bear Lake, Ca., along with nieces and nephews: Michael Dick, Brenda Clarke, Susan Williams, Allison Clark, Robbie Taylor, Jennifer Ercolani, Heather Hampton, Corey and Jordan Ercolani, and goddaughter, KaeLynn Endrusick.
