

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, March 9, 1999

Died: Monday, January 27, 2014

Leroy Brockington III, affectionately known as "Lutha" was born to Kimberly Thompson and Leroy Brockington Jr. on March 9, 1999 in Fort Myers, Florida.

Leroy was a devoted student at Lexington Middle and loved to dance. He was well-known as an outspoken, yet respectful young man.

He accepted Christ in his life at an early age. He was active member at the McGregor River Mission Church.

Service Summary

Funeral Service

11:00 AM Sat Feb 08, 2014

First Assembly Cornerstone

3220 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Ft. Myers, Florida 33916

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Leroy Sr. and Carolyn Brockington.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his parents, Leroy Brockington Jr. (Phyllis) and Kimberly Thompson; grandparents, Verleen and James Ruff, and Emanuel Pope; devoted step-father, Earnest Hutto; sisters, Carolyn Brockington, Aaliyah Brockington, Verleen Brockington, Sylvia Brown, and Destiny Brown; brothers, James Brockington and Diante Brown; favorite aunts, Sylvia Ruff and Pamela Hendrix; uncle, Henry Singleton; brother-in-law, Antonio Williams; special cousins, Kemahn Fleming, Johnquaizia McCoy, and Shekila Brown; close friend, Rowdy Cody; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, classmates, and friends.