Wauzeka High School friends will remember Bill's love of football and wrestling, which continued through his enjoyment of watching family members play sports. He also enjoyed professional football and baseball. More recently, Bill's gaming skills showed when playing Dominoes. Family recall Bill's love of nature. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and simply driving around admiring the beauty of the land. He also appreciated a good read and watching westerns. The biggest joys in his life came from spending time with loved ones, especially the grandkids.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday April 21, 2018 at
