

Obituary

Died: Sunday, September 8, 2019

John M. Stastny 67, of Fennimore, passed away from heart failure on Sunday Sept 8th, 2019 at the Onalaska Care Center.

John was born May 29, 1952 at Boscobel Hospital to John F. and Elizabeth "Betty" (Martin) Stastny of Hickory Grove Township, rural Fennimore. He attended ICS grade school and Boscobel High School, graduating in 1970. He had a love of cars, Mustangs in particular, and could fix any motor he encountered so he attended Southwest Tech for 3 years getting degrees in both Auto and Ag Mechanics.

After graduation he started his own car repair business in his parent's garage. In 1978 he opened the Quick Shop Tire Service in Fennimore. He ran this business for many years until failing health made it difficult to work.
