Tom graduated from Iowa-Grant High School in 1961. Tom farmed in Crawford County for 20 years before moving to Grant County. He enjoyed raising sheep and doing yard work. He made close friends, with all his neighbors, especially with the Amish Community, who welcomed him with open arms. Levi Fisher and family took great care of Tom during his illness, and his neighbor "Pete" and cousin "Charlie" and their wives assisted him tremendously, as well during this time.
