

“I’m not the sort to back away from a fight. I don’t believe in shrinking from anything. It’s not my speed; I’m a guy who meets adversities head on.”

– John Wayne

Staring out into the blaze orange sunset, listening to the rustle of a bull elk just below
stirring up the sage brush.
Smelling the smoke from my pipe,
knowing and feeling peace.
Wandering back to camp,
passing through the ravine
to the other side, I arrive.
Flickering embers,
warm laughter and stories
drifting me to sleep, I rest.

Love,
Renaë
