

Mother

*Hours spent sewing and cooking and cleaning.
To make our home look shining and gleaming.*

*Teaching young minds until they shined.
Only concerned and sharing, always caring.*

*Encouraging us to find our way.
Even though it sent us far away.*

*All the dresses that you made,
While your heart worried and prayed.*

*Worried about mistakes we may make.
Or the path we may take.*

*Keeping us close in your heart.
Knowing we will never part.*

*Always in my thoughts you will be.
Because you mean the world to me.*
