

Mothers Never Really Die

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of an "unknown land"

But she was not afraid to go

For though the path she did not know,
She took death's hand without fear,
For He who safely brought her here
Had told her He would lead the way

Into eternity's bright day...

And so she did not go alone

Into the "Valley That's Unknown".

She gently took death by the hand
And journeyed to "The Promised Land"

And there, with step so light and gay,

She polishes the sun by day

And lights the stars that shine at night

And keeps the moonbeams silvery bright...

For Mothers really never die,

They just "keep house up in the sky"...

And in the heavenly home above,

They wait to "welcome" those they love.
