Died: Thursday, June 20, 2013

Donald K. O'Neal, 93, of Shelbyville, died June 20, 2013, at Heritage House Convalescent Center in Shelbyville.

He was born July 18, 1919, to Walter O'Neal and Clara (Morris) O'Neal in Indianapolis. He married Beverly Morris on August 23, 1938, and she survives.

Survivors include: son, Larry (Karen) O'Neal of Plymouth, IN; daughter, Shannon (Dan) Foster of Cambridge City; grandsons, Travis (Linley) O'Neal, Aaron (Ruth) Foster, Ryan (Hailey) Foster and Adam Foster; and great-grandson, Braxton Foster.

He was preceeded in death by father, Walter O'Neal; mother, Clara (Morris) O'Neal; daughter, Beth Ann O'Neal; two sisters and two brothers.

Mr. O'Neal graduated from Columbus High School in 1937 and attended Indiana University for a couple of years before he entered the U.S. Navy during World War II.

After his discharge from the U.S. Navy, he worked for Reeves Pulley in Columbus. Following that, he went to work for Naval Avionics in Indianapolis, where he worked for 33 years as a processing engineer as he traveled extensively around the world. He also served as president of their credit union. Upon retirement, he began his automobile sales career at several car dealers over the next 10 years until he officially retired in 1985.

He was a member of the First Christian Church. He was a lifetime member of the Eagles Lodge #766, where he held all offices. He called bingo for 30 years and was also a member of the FOP American Legion, VFW Post #2695 and the Moose Lodge.

He found his joy in giving of his time through numerous service organizations. He was known as the "Quarter Man" to the kids in Shelbyville for always giving generously.
