He was the son of William and Marty Schwier and Pamela and Ron DeBaun, who all survive, and the husband of Kelly (Mitchell) Schwier, who also survives.

Robert will be forever remembered as a loving father to son Robert Christian and daughter Hayley Iona, and as best friend and brother to Michael Daniels. Robert is also survived by an aunt, Sue (husband, Jimmy) Barnes of Rushville; two uncles, Tom (wife, Debbie) Wainscott of Knightstown and Ralph Baker of Manilla; three stepchildren, Brittney Bailey, Brandon Day and Jessica Mitchell; stepgrandson, Tyler Bailey, and step-granddaughter, Zoe, to be born in October; his mother-in-law, Sharon Bartley; special friend and caregiver, Bob Chasteen; lifelong friend, Tony Gahimer; and a host of extended family.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, both paternal, Carl and Iona Schwier; and maternal, Mel and Mary Wainscott; and aunt, Carolyn Baker.

His skills at carpentry, his quickness to lend a hand to others, his passion for hunting and his infectious laughter while frequenting racetracks and casinos will be forever in the hearts and minds of those family and friends he leaves behind.

Extended family and friends are invited to a celebration of life and visitation from 3 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 4, 2012, at Murphy-Parks Funeral Service, 703 S. Harrison St. in Shelbyville.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2012, at the funeral home with Cedric Perry officiating. Burial will be at Memorial Park Cemetery, 9350 E. Washington St. in Indianapolis.

Memorial contributions may be made in Robert's name to St. Vincent Hospice or the Brain Tumor Foundation in care of Murphy-Parks Funeral Service.
