

Obituary

Born: Saturday, December 27, 1958

Died: Thursday, July 25, 2013

Pamela Kay Wilson, 54, of Shelbyville, passed away Thursday, July 25, 2013, at Major Hospital in Shelbyville.

She was born in Dec. 27, 1958, in Rushville to Lloyd and Vivian (Ruble) Corn..

She is survived by daughters Ashley (husband, Roy) Ramos of Donna, Texas, Danille Walker of Shelbyville and Amanda (husband, Nathan) Stewart of Shelbyville; a son, Charles (wife, Nichole) Wilson of Greensburg; grandsons, Dakota Walker, Mason Stewart and Kaydon Stewart; sisters, Carolyn Sue (husband, Johnny) Jarbo of Rushville, Bonita (husband, Ray) Brewer of Manilla and Sandy (husband, Mike) Fussner of Rushville; twin brother Patrick (wife, Michelle) Corn, of New Castle; and a companion dog, Miley.

She is preceded in death by her parents; a daughter, Catrina Corn; brother Kenneth Corn; and a son-in-law, Mike Walker.

Service Summary

Visitation

3:00 PM to 7:00 PM, Mon Jul 29, 2013

Faith Trinity Pentecostal Church

505 W. Pennsylvania Street
Shelbyville, Indiana 46176

Memorial Service

7:00 PM Mon Jul 29, 2013

Faith Trinity Pentecostal Church

505 W. Pennsylvania Street
Shelbyville, Indiana 46176

Mrs. Wilson was a nursing aide for many years at Heritage House Nursing Home. She was an avid reader and collector of novels. She was also a collector of angels. She attended the Faith Pentecostal Church. Memorial contributions may be given to the Shelby County Public Library.

Visitation will be from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. today at Faith Trinity Pentecostal Church, 505 W. Pennsylvania St. in Shelbyville.

The funeral will be at 7 p.m. at the church. Burial will take place at the East Brook Cemetery in Milroy with a private family service.

Arrangements are by Murphy-Parks Funeral Service, 703 S. Harrison St., Shelbyville. Online condolences may be made at www.murphyparks.com.