She made and sold candles, enjoyed reading, and spending time with her family and friends. Ruth was an active member of her church, Christ the King Parish in Mashpee. She sang in the choir for many years, managed the church gift shop, and spent many hours helping out at the church thrift shop. As members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, Ruth and Bill assisted boats in distress, taught classes on boat safety and she was the first woman to become an official member of the local Power Squadron.
