Ronnie was a graduate of Everett High School Class of 2009. Growing up Ronnie enjoyed playing sports and knocked out a few grand slams in little league. Ronnie grew to have a passion for the outdoors with fishing, camping and snowboarding being some of his favorite activities. Ronald went on to mechanical trade school. Following completion, Ronald worked as an auto mechanic. Ronnie had a knack for making people laugh. He was kind-hearted, respectful, and spread joy to all he encountered.

The family would like to thank all who have supported us with the outpouring of love and extreme generosity during this time of grief.
