Frank was a caring and loving husband, father and respected and beloved uncle, cousin and friend who had a big heart and was generous with his time and talents to his beloved community of Everett. He was an active member, past chairman and past president to many community, church and civic organizations in the City of Everett throughout his life. Born and raised in Everett, son of Italian immigrant parents, Rocco and Maria Mastrocola, Frank graduated from Everett High School in 1944 and was a proud member of the US Marine Corps 1st Marine Division seeing combat in Okinawa during WWII. Upon return from the Marines, Frank started Master Fuel Co., Inc. where he was President and owner for over 30 years, and President and owner of Travel Master, Inc. for 10 years before retiring. He touched, influenced and mentored the lives of many and will be greatly missed. Funeral from Salvatore Rocco & Sons Funeral Home, 331 Main St., EVERETT, Wednesday, January 17 at 9:00 AM. Funeral Mass will be held at St. Anthony Church, 38 Oakes Street, Everett at 10:00 AM. Relatives and friends are kindly invited. Visiting hours are Tuesday from 2:00 to 8:00 PM.
