Mario loved to travel and was fortunate that his career allowed him to travel the world seeing many countries, such as Japan, Australia and everything in between. Mario adored taking his family on special trips to the White Mountains, Canada, and Disney World. He had a passion for music and played the drums for many years. When Mario wasn't fixing, building or racing cars he enjoyed spending time in Meredith, New Hampshire. Lake Winnepesaukee is where he fell in love with boats, motorcycles, snowmobiles, and many other toys. Most of all he loved and enjoyed being with his family. Mario was an old school kind of guy, who believed in doing the right thing and would do anything for his family and friends. As Mario's father paved the way for his family here, his mother is paving the way in heaven. Until we meet again, you will forever live on in our hearts.

Mario was a loving father to his three children, Mario, Anthony and his wife Stephanie, and Nicole, and a loving grandfather to his two grandchildren, Angelo and Lilianna. He also was a beloved uncle to many nephews and nieces. Mario also leaves behind his many beloved pets.

A private service will be held for immediate family and invited friends only.
