Born in Boston's North End, raised in Everett, she married the love of her life, Guy (Tony) Pulpi in 1943 and lived in Boston until 1960 when she moved back to Everett. In 2003 Rose and Guy moved to Melrose to be near their family. Rose was a dedicated and self-less wife, mother and grandmother who always put her family first. She was the happiest spending time with her multi-generational family.

Rose was an accomplished seamstress and was employed as a sample maker in the Boston garment district. Her hobbies included Bingo, sewing and crocheting. Her faith was her anchor and lived her life with an unceasing devotion to the Miraculous Medal. Rose will be remembered as a devoted wife, extraordinary mother and treasured grandmother/great grandmother.

Visiting hours will be in the Salvatore Rocco & Sons Funeral Home, 331 Main Street, Everett on Monday, December 10 from 8:30 to 9:30 am. A Funeral Mass will follow in the Most Blessed Sacrament Church, 1155 Main Street, Wakefield at 10:30 am. Relatives and friends are kindly invited. Interment will be private. Donations in Rose's memory may be made to Melrose City Hall, Attn: Veteran Services, 562 Main St., Melrose, MA 02176. Make checks payable to City of Melrose "Veteran Relief Fund" in the memo line.
