

Obituary

Born: Monday, July 5, 1965

Died: Saturday, August 3, 2019

Denise Lee Anzalone Lucreziano Risi passed away on August 3rd, age 54, surrounded by her loving family. Beloved wife of Vincent Risi whom she shared 2 years of marriage. Loving mother of Tori Lucreziano, Regina Lucreziano and Samantha Ibrahim. Devoted Grandmother to her first and only grandchild, Charlie Skye Ibrahim. Former wife of Anthony Lucreziano. Step-mother to Trista Birch and her husband Francis, and step daughter to Sarah Risi. Daughter of Clara L. Mederios and the late Anthony (Ziggy) Anzalone and his surviving wife, Sandra. Her sisters Michelle Mongeon, Marie Ellard, Donna Lento and her brothers Anthony Anzalone and the late James Mongeon. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was a die-hard Red Sox fan with a larger than life soul, who loved to create art, sing, dance and play pranks. She adored playing with her granddaughter, singing to her, and watching her grow. She recently got into the hobby of making wreaths, she was very passionate about them, as they also served a purpose of art therapy. She had a thing for owls, and often said to her husband "Owl always love you." She also had a thing for cactus's, blue roses and sun flowers. Her favorite Holiday was Halloween, which she would go all out for. She has brightened the lives of everyone she has met in her many years on this earth. She will live forever through the hearts of her loved ones, and through the words she spoke and believed in. The song she sang to her daughters Tori and Regina, as young children "You are my sunshine" will carry on through their lives, as the sun shines upon their faces. She left a massive footprint on this earth, she has truly LIVED.

"Love you all the way up to God momma, like we always said.. and now I know you all the way from heaven." - Pumpkin Head
